

BEST RESOURCES FOR CRYPTO KNOWLEDGE

BlocksDecoded.com

Blocks Decoded is aimed at the average person—someone who is aware of crypto's growth but doesn't know what it means for them or how they can get involved. The site is focused on helping end-users learn, grow, and interact with the crypto world. It does this thanks to excellent how-to articles, buying guides, reviews, opinion pieces, and much more. It's one of the best crypto resources around.

Coinbase.com

Coinbase is a crypto exchange where you can buy and sell. It also has its own wallet for crypto storage. When it comes to knowledge, though, it's a great resource for finding out crypto prices, along with things like the current rate, percentage change, and market cap. You can track trends over time to try and use it to inform your investment decisions.

CoinDesk.com

CoinDesk is one of the best resources for crypto and blockchain news. It has news that covers all areas of the industry, including its people, the policy and regulation, and the tech that surrounds it. The site also has a wealth of interesting opinion articles, along with high quality podcasts and videos, and a bank of '101' learning resources to learn crypto basics.

Investopedia.com

Investopedia was founded in 1999 with the aim to make finances and investment easy to understand for the layperson. Of course, it's evolved since then, but the core foundation of the site remains the same. It's a great resource if you need to gather basic and easy to understand definitions, but it also has comprehensive guides if you want to delve in further.

Blockgeeks.com

Blockgeeks is committed to helping the world understand crypto, providing hundreds of courses and lessons across all learning levels. Though the site is primarily subscription based, it has a number of free courses. With aspects like individual goals, quizzes, and industry expert knowledge, learning on Blockgeeks is fun. Even Steve Wozniak backs it!

Cointelegraph.com

Cointelegraph was founded in 2013 and covers news on blockchain technology, crypto assets, and emerging fintech trends. They believe that the decentralized world will continue to grow and become part of our daily lives, so their large global editorial team aims to educate and share their knowledge with the readers.

Cryptomaniaks.com

Cryptomaniaks takes its name because it's composed of a team of crypto maniacs. They want to make simple, intuitive content that people can trust as a valuable source of crypto knowledge. They have a great course all about Bitcoin, supported by engaging video, along with loads of free guides. They also report on news so you can remain up-to-date.

CryptoCompare.com

CryptoCompare is a global crypto market data provider, notable for providing real-time and reliable market pricing on over 5,300 coins. It does this by aggregating and analyzing tick data from global exchanges. CryptoCompare also produces helpful research resources, blockchain and historical data, and guides to aspects like mining and wallets.

Binance.vision

Binance is a crypto exchange and this is their Academy, a brilliant resource to help you learn all about blockchain and crypto for free. Binance Academy offers bitesize articles, often supported with video, that help you get your head around complicated topics. They also have a glossary of nearly 250 terms and some fun quizzes.

TokenTuber.com

TokenTuber is a curated video platform for novice crypto traders. It aims to lower the barriers to entry for the crypto world to help it become mass adopted. There are videos explaining things like proof of stake, mining, decentralized applications, along with overviews of some of the most popular cryptos.

en.bitcoin.it

The Bitcoin wiki is, as the name suggests, an online encyclopedia all about Bitcoin, the world's largest crypto. While it does touch on some other cryptos, this is mainly a great resource to find out everything you want to know about Satoshi Nakamoto's creation, along with related concepts and best practice guides.

Cryptonews.com

Cryptonews offers opinions, reviews, and guides on everything to do with crypto. They want to help the general public understand the technology behind crypto and the blockchain. Not only do they have their own original content, but they also curate videos and provide an overview of the market cap and current prices.

CryptoSlate.com

CryptoSlate provides thorough, insightful news reporting and their site makes it a breeze to access the content. You can browse by industry, type of coin, or just see the latest trending news. What makes CryptoSlate stand out is its extensive directory of coins, companies, products, and people, making it a great resource to dive deep into the crypto industry.
